Every person has the same rights. You too! Regardless of your gender, or where you come from, what religious beliefs you have or which education level you have obtained, regardless of your sexual orientation or if you are intellectually/physically challenged – no one is allowed to discriminate you or place you at a disadvantage.

SOLVE PROBLEMS, FIND SOLUTIONS TOGETHER.

Equal chances for all citizens and the acceptance of all lifestyles – this is what we stand for. If you find yourself in a challenging life situation, we can provide you with the necessary support. We are there to hear you out and find a solution together.

We work in cooperation with our wide network of experts, institutions and initiatives. Obviously, we treat your concerns confidentially and are subject to the non-disclosure obligation. Our counseling is free of charge and non-binding.
